FIFTY-NINE tobacco factories in Kentucky annually use over 9,000,000 pounds of leaf tobacco, making 8,000,000 pounds of plug tobacco and 1,000,000 pounds of fine cut and smoking tobacco.

The proceedings against the crooked pension claim agents are frightening the members of that too numerous fraternity. Some of them are making virtual confession in a hope of escaping more easily by that course.

WINCHESTER wants water works, and the Lexington Transcript advises that the want can be supplied by sinking a sugar hoghead in the ground. Lexington might take the hint, and by putting down two, save a considerable amount of money.

The temperance ladies of the country will be shocked by the intelligence the Chicago Herald has made bold to publish that the $1,500 portrait of Mrs. Hayes, which was expected to become an honored treasure of the White House, has, after maintaining a migratory existence from room to room, at last brought up in the garret.

The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette reports the discovery of an ingenious evasion of the tariff by importers of sheet iron and their agents. It says: "Taggers' iron which is a very light grade is admitted for 30 per cent. ad valorem, while the duty on heavier grades is from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents per pound. The importers have been mixing the two together, and the appraisers have been deceived into admitting the iron under 30 per cent. ad valorem rate. After its arrival in Pittsburg it would be repacked and shipped to the west. It is said that thousands of tons have been brought into the country by this evasion, much to the injury of the sheet iron mills in Pittsburg and elsewhere."

The great Napoleon married a widow. Scarron's widow became a Court favorite. Rousseau went crazy after a widow, and Gibbon, the historian, made himself ridiculous over one. Disraeli married a widow, and three of the most distinguished widows of to-day are the Empress Eugenie of the French, Queen Isabella of the Spanish and Queen Victoria of the English.

Margaret Washington is George Washington's great-grand-niece, and, excepting a cousin of hers who keeps up the old family place down on the east shore of Virginia, she has more of the Washington blood in her veins than any other American. She keeps a boarding house just back of the Riggs Hotel, in the capital. Although seventy years old, she is active and alert. Her features have a strong resemblance to those of Washington. She is deep in every charitable work in that city and a manager for a home for old ladies.

THE FEMALE FORM DIVINE.

The Figure of the Young Girl and How It Assumes a Mature Look.

Given a small, straight, flat figure, remarks Clara Bell, with a face delicate in its features, and the problem of making a girl look like fifteen until she is altogether past her teens is not exceedingly difficult. It can be very simply worked by refusing to let her petticoats grow to a mature length, eschewing all devices of bodice that produce artificial undulation, and enjoining an innocent simplicity of carriage and manner. That was what had been done with the bride whom I have mentioned. There was in her family the usual incentive for thus retarding her apparent growth from childhood to womanhood. The older sisters wished to matrimonially place themselves before their ages were emphasized by the youngest daughter becoming an adult. Why, I remember that one evening at a reception, the dear girl came down to the parlor in a lovely costume of white tulle, as simple and infantile as a christening robe, and with a hem no lower than the tops of her high boots; but she had presumed to give a slight roundness to her corset. That was an amendment to the family resolution which was instantly voted down, though she pleaded hard to carry it.

"I'm a woman, and I want to look like one," she pleaded.

"You may be a woman, but you've got to look like a child as long as nature will let you," was the maternal mandate.

So she had to go back to her room and flatten the bosom in which indignation was swelling.

"I'll develop all of a sudden, the first thing they know—see if I don't," she said to me on that occasion.

And she did it on her wedding day, for certain. The dignified little creature who dragged a train up the center aisle of a fashionable church was no longer childish. Her babyish braids of hair had become an elaborate coiffure; the ankles were out of sight, and, instead of her stockinged display, there was a charming disclosure of bare arms that were far more plump and tapering than anybody had expected, and as fair as eighteen years' seclusion could make them; her bodice, for the first time, was shapely—by exactly what means is none of the public's business. Improved? I should say so. If the bridegroom had fallen in love with her former aspect he had every reason for augmenting his passion as he beheld her in bridal robes.

COUNTY POINTS.

BURTONVILLE.
Wheat is looking well.
Stripping tobacco is in progress.
T. C. Seiser has finished his new dwelling.
A. Jones will leave soon for the Black Hills.
A debating society has been organized here.
George and John Kemplin have bought a farm of Lewis Benn.
Harry Wood, of Maysville, was a welcome visitor here last week.
Dennis Kelly has re-opened the gold mine formerly worked by Henry Luman.
There was a very interesting masquerade hop at Monroe Prescott's last week.
E. P. Luman will leave in a few days for Lexington, where he will go to school.
Emmett Pollitt has exchanged his old stage for a new one, and is doing a good business on the road.
Thomas Robinson and brother, of Robertson county, have bought A. Person's farm.
B. A. Hardiman and J. M. Hawley, our stock dealers, are doing a good business this season.
Miss Jane Sharma, who has been very sick, is much better.
R. M.

MAYSVILLE.
There will be a good many hogs killed this week.
Alexander Duke has made some very fine crab cider.
Miss Lina Payne is visiting relatives at Lexington.
Mr. E. Myall returned home from Bourbon county last week, three miles west of this place.
Quite a number of the farmers have commenced stripping tobacco.
A. G. Wilson left for his home in Lewis county last Friday morning.
The ground was frozen last Monday morning for the first time this season.
Miss Lizzie Chinn is on a protracted visit in the Washington neighborhood.
J. J. Peck's bull killed a horse for one of his tenants by kicking him in the breast.
Mrs. Malinda Davis and Mat. Fields, both colored, were married last Saturday. Fields is her ninth husband. Can Craddock beat that?
Garrison and Payne, two celebrated lumber men, who have been operating around here for some time, are now lumbering near Maysville.
Mrs. Thomas Patton, of Poplar Plains, formerly the Widow Smith, died at her father's place, near Lexington, last week. The funeral services took place at the Baptist Church on the 12th, conducted by Elder Keys, of Lewisburg, and Rev. Mr. Spates, of Sardis. The services were very impressive, and a large concourse of friends and relatives were in attendance. Her remains now rest in our cemetery, while her spirit is with God who gave it.

For and About Women.
A Massachusetts bride is about to begin housekeeping on $8,000,000. This disposes of the rumor that she would probably keep two servants.
Miss Lelia J. Robinson, of Boston, has been appointed special commissioner to administer oaths, take acknowledgement of deeds, and depositions.
Mrs. C. Newell, of Wilbraham, is engaged in raising poultry. She has built a large hen house 100 feet long, and is making preparations to carry on the business extensively.
Miss Elizabeth Stuart Phelps was christened May Gray for an intimate friend of her mother's, but after the death of her mother, the authorities was a girl, the present name was given instead.

The London News: "The Princess of Wales has won two millinery victories this year—both on the side of common sense. She has banished the crinoline in spite of Paris. She has retained the small bonnet in fashion, still in spite of Paris."
Miss Bertha Crowley should take the field as a professional dreamer. She dreamed three nights in succession that an uncle had died in Texas, so she wrote the old gentleman to find out the facts. The letter fell into the hands of his lawyers, who notified her last week that she had fallen heir to $50,000 by her uncle's death.

The other day in Nottingham, Eng., a well-known female thief succeeded in stealing a trunk from a railway station. When, however, she opened it, she found it to contain the body of a child in spirits, a human leg and other portions of the human anatomy, her motions were so mixed that she surrendered to the police.

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.

Sad Death of a Highly Respectable Young Lady.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13.—Miss Lizzie Eppens, twenty-three, a highly educated and respectable young lady of Corryville, ended her life by drowning herself in a pond near her home, early this morning. She has been a school teacher in the Corryville district school for two or three years past, and boarded with her parents on Highland avenue. For the last two or three days she complained of headache, and did not go to school yesterday morning. About 4 A. M. to-day she arose from her bed, went to the pond, cast herself in, and drowned. Soon after she was missed by her parents, who, upon search, found a note, which, among other things, stated where her body could be found. Search was immediately instituted, and at six the corpse was recovered and taken home. No reason has yet been discovered for the rash act. The Coroner was notified.

The French in Tonquin.
PARIS, Nov. 13.—The French troops sent to reinforce the army at Tonquin, have arrived and disembarked at Hai-Phong. Admiral Courbet announces his intention of first attacking Sontay and then Hong-Ho.

The Socialist Cranks.
BERLIN, Nov. 13.—Socialists here have been arrested charged with incitement to riot, because, in a notice printed in "Sud Deutscher," the editor invited the readers of that paper to call at his office to see a copy of a nihilistic paper. A detective dressed in citizens clothes went and read very inflammatory articles in the paper and arrested several people.

WEDNESDAY EVE., NOV. 14, 1883.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To Whom Address All Communications.

What are the wild waves, saying, my love,
Saying the living day—
They're talking, my child, of Love's big stool,
And how little there is to pay.
And I tell you the truth as straight as a gauge,
For I have been there, and many's the times,
You're treated as well, though pennies you spend,
As though those pennies were dimes.

Coal sells for 18 cents a bushel at Lexington, and for 10 cents in this city.

The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette says: "Mr. George Seltzer is in the city." Apparently he is in Mayville to-day.

Come to Mayville for holiday goods. The merchants are already making their displays. The stocks are large and very complete.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Mr. John N. Goodman and Miss Maggie Sroufe, at Dover, on the 22nd instant.

Mr. Robert Ficklin, sr., is at Helena on a hunting expedition. The younger sportsman of Mayville will have to look out for their laurels.

The articles of incorporation of the Northeastern Kentucky Telephone Association have been admitted to record in the county clerk's office.

The street car company contemplate issuing a monthly ticket which will cost the purchaser $2.50. It will, however, not be put out immediately.

Carpets, Oil Cloths and Window shades. We will offer great bargains in these goods for the next twenty days. J. W. Sparks & Bro's, Market street.

Old folks and nervous people should go to Kackley's gallery for pictures by the lightning process. Don't wait for sunshine, any kind of weather will do. Kackley's dry plates will do you up.

As a competitive drill by the Lexington Guards, a few days ago, the gold medal was awarded to Mr. Perry Field, formerly of this city. So it seems the best men always come from Mayville.

Masonic Notice.
There will be a called meeting of Mayville Chapter No. 9, this evening at 7 o'clock, sharp. Visitors and members invited. Jas. H. Saller, Sec'y.

The mills at Cincinnati have lately discovered that laths can be bought in Mayville cheaper than elsewhere. Messrs. Collins, Rudy & Co. have just shipped 100,000 to Messrs. C. W. & S. G. Boyd, of that city.

The revival services at the Southern Methodist Church are very interesting. The sermon last night by Rev. Harry Henderson on "What is Man," was listened to with profound attention by a large congregation. Come to night.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla works directly and promptly, to purify and enrich the blood, improve the appetite, strengthen the nerves, and brace up the system. It is in the truest sense an alternative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

Avoid the harsh, irritating gripping compounds so often sold as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching in their action.

Dr. Bruce Champ says in the Bourbon News: A lemon taken every morning with a little sugar or salt, will break up chills and all malarial troubles. Try this remedy for about ten days and you'll feel like you've been born again.

About two months ago, Miss Mattie Carr had stolen from her a breast-pin and two bracelets, which she valued at about $50. The case was put in the hands of Deputy Marshal Dawson, and on Sunday he recovered the bracelets in this city, and yesterday, at Ripley, found the breast-pin. The work was well done.

Failure of a Leather Firm.
Special to DAILY BULLETIN.
CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 14.—The leather firm of T. T. Brown & Co., of Cincinnati, has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. The liabilities are stated at $400,000. With one exception they were the heaviest leather dealers in the city.

Sales of Land.

W. H. Kyder and wife to M. J. Caldwell, house and lot in Chester consideration $750.
James T. Street and wife to Amelia Boudel, house and lot on north side of Second street; consideration $750.
John W. Hunsicker and wife to James H. Walker, 22 acres of land in Mason county; consideration $750.
Jacob Doss's heirs, by commission, to James Shuler, lot of 10 acres on south side of Fifth street in Mayville; consideration $600.

What is His Worth?

We often hear the inquiry as to what a man is worth. It is made in reference to his pecuniary condition, and commonly implies a desire to treat the party inquired of with respect. Indeed the possession of wealth is too frequently the badge of entrance within the circle which embraces the best people among us. We do not intend to speak despitely of those who have accumulated large means by legitimate methods. To seek the increase of one's happiness in that direction is perfectly proper, and philanthropy has often been turned into this channel when seeking an outlet where it would be otherwise restrained. But how often do we hear inquiries as to what a person's moral or intellectual qualities are? Are we asked, even in a flippant manner, what is the man worth, when his value in the community as a good citizen, an upright man, or one who is attentive to his duties as the head of a family, are concerned. Passing through our streets one may daily notice certain improvements that are in progress in connection with real estate and almost immediately the thought occurs, "What is he worth?" Why not apply the remark to his character in respect to his moral obligations as well as to the state of his finances?

THE GREAT STORM.

Steamer Francis Smith With One Hundred Passengers Believed to be Lost.

Special to DAILY BULLETIN.
CINCINNATI, O., November 24th.—Continued heavy loss of life and property is reported as the result of the great storm on the lakes, which has raged for two days. The steamer Francis Smith, of Collinswood, Ontario, with one hundred passengers is long over due and is believed to be lost with all on board.

A Druggist's Story.

Mr. Isaac C. Chapman, Druggist, Newburg, N. Y., writes us: "I have for the past ten years sold several gross of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I can say of it what I cannot say of any other medicine. I have never heard a customer speak of it but to praise its virtues in the highest manner. I have recommended it in a great many cases of whooping cough, with the happiest effects. I have used it in my own family for many years; in fact, always have a bottle in the medicine closet ready for use."

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

The hunting field still holds its exciting sport for hare and hound.
Taffy parties are trying to vie with the frequency of wedding parties.

Miss Emma Young was visiting last week, Mrs. Crook, of "Sunnyside."

Animosity united with vivacity is a tonic to equal sparkling champagne.

The Sibbald-Hood pupils has been a most dazzling event in Aberdeen society circles.

It is strange how many persons of late have been afflicted with the malady of "sour grapes."

Mr. H. L. Bower, of Cincinnati, representing the firm of Boehmer & Sons, visited Mrs. Crook, of "Sunnyside," last week.

Facts are very tame to listen to when told in a prosaic manner. "Briefly is the soul of wit," but in his case it is the soul of tediousness.

We paid him the highest compliment in our power, and still he is not satisfied. What is the matter with a lawyer? Mr. Grundy said he needed a sugar-coated pill.

We cautioned Madam Grundy, but it was useless. She had a mania of "catching on" to any rumor of a sensational character. But it was "just to please the boys," one in particular.

Mr. George Howard returned Sunday morning from Cincinnati, accompanied by his wife, who has been under the best of medical treatment at College Hill. She is greatly improved.

Madam Grundy informs us of several young ladies in this town who say, when they marry, they will dispense with diamond ornaments. They will not wear any but simplicity, their only jewel the pure gem of modesty.

We have noticed that a true gentleman never forgets himself, if anything is said to him, he humbly answers his part with most becoming composure. His dignity is such that he never stoops to anything less than refined language.

Last Sunday morning as we ascended the Aberdeen grade our ears caught the musical laugh of a dark-eyed gentleman, with dark side whiskers and a sweeping moustache, but we never heard anything which sounded so sweetly as the melodious voice, once heard it can never be forgotten. We wonder if we have particularized sufficiently to appear as being partial.

Friday afternoon the Spargo had two weddings. One couple he married at the Toler House, while the other wedding couple patiently awaited his appearance at the Spargo's residence. The short and impressive ceremony was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators—quite a number of Mayvillians were in attendance. Mr. Robert Spargo's bride was greatly attracted by the beauty of the charming bride.

A "quire's" lot much pleasanter than a physician's, his time is wholly at the command of the public. These cool evenings it must be very pleasant to be around from year's friends, who on the occasion of wedding parties, they are so inconsiderate as to think only of their own pleasure. At one of these late romantic midnight weddings recently we were awakened from our dreams by some one calling out, lustily for Hippone.

Last Friday evening Mrs. Robert Brook entertained a large number of her friends in a most charming manner, the evening being most pleasantly spent in various amusements. A late hour a most delicious repast was served, comprising all the delicacies of the season. Mrs. Brook's entertainments are never fail in giving enjoyment to the participants. They are looked forward to with pleasure, and left with reluctance.

"Home news," no matter if the latest, tastes insipid if not properly seasoned. There is a great deal to be said for the dark-eyed reporter—he doesn't understand the art as we do, of taking state news, working it over, and then serve it to the public, like a well-seasoned and well spiced, to give it a tart flavor, sufficiently trimmed with "sensational rumpsteak" to please the public taste of the present generation. And this is a most modest, and offer this receipt free of charge.

We have pretty well written Aberdeen up, so far as the news goes, and in as glowing terms as we were capable of placing it to the public. If our pen was sometimes dipped into gall, it was done to act as an emetic to relieve society caused by the frequent doses of insipid sweetened water which we have been forced to swallow, and five hundred dear readers, a parting farewell, as we have sought new fields of green pastures and brighter prospects of with "year's" friends, who on the occasion of wedding parties, they are so inconsiderate as to think only of their own pleasure. At one of these late romantic midnight weddings recently we were awakened from our dreams by some one calling out, lustily for Hippone.

They are looked forward to with pleasure, and left with reluctance.

"Home news," no matter if the latest, tastes insipid if not properly seasoned. There is a great deal to be said for the dark-eyed reporter—he doesn't understand the art as we do, of taking state news, working it over, and then serve it to the public, like a well-seasoned and well spiced, to give it a tart flavor, sufficiently trimmed with "sensational rumpsteak" to please the public taste of the present generation. And this is a most modest, and offer this receipt free of charge.

We have pretty well written Aberdeen up, so far as the news goes, and in as glowing terms as we were capable of placing it to the public. If our pen was sometimes dipped into gall, it was done to act as an emetic to relieve society caused by the frequent doses of insipid sweetened water which we have been forced to swallow, and five hundred dear readers, a parting farewell, as we have sought new fields of green pastures and brighter prospects of with "year's" friends, who on the occasion of wedding parties, they are so inconsiderate as to think only of their own pleasure. At one of these late romantic midnight weddings recently we were awakened from our dreams by some one calling out, lustily for Hippone.

Last Friday evening Mrs. Robert Brook entertained a large number of her friends in a most charming manner, the evening being most pleasantly spent in various amusements. A late hour a most delicious repast was served, comprising all the delicacies of the season. Mrs. Brook's entertainments are never fail in giving enjoyment to the participants. They are looked forward to with pleasure, and left with reluctance.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

MARION CIRCUIT COURT.

Wm. C. Etzel's Adm'r., Plaintiff, vs. Elizabeth Etzel et al., Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Marion Circuit Court, rendered at the October term thereof, 1883, in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale, on the premises, to-wit: of said court, west of Short street, Mayville, Ky., to the highest bidder, at public auction, on Saturday, the 17th day of November, 1883, at two o'clock p. m. upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described property to-wit: Part of lot 58, on plat of Mayville, with good brick dwelling thereon, situated on Second street, near Short street, measuring Manitoba Wants to Secede.

PAUL, Minn., Nov. 12.—A despatch from Winnipeg from Winnipeg, Man., says: Within the past few days, agitation has begun in favor of secession from the Dominion of Canada. It is the Association of Manitoba, and the Northwest that is being advocated. The movement will be properly organized this week, when meetings will be held and officers appointed. In conversation with a prominent lawyer, who is one of the principal movers in the agitation, he said: "We propose to get up a manifesto of all grievances and present it to the Dominion Government and if we don't get satisfaction why there will be trouble." It is said that many of the agitators are strongly in favor of annexation.

Furor in the Oil Market.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—There was renewed excitement in the petroleum market Monday. The furor was caused by a further advance in the price, which touched $1.15 1/2 per barrel, or two cents higher than Saturday's closing quotation. Pipe Line certificates were sold out under the rule at the National Petroleum Exchange, for the account of Gilek and Blum, of 61 Broadway. The advance in the price of petroleum is about six cents since a week ago, and it was stated that several speculators had lost heavily by being caught on the wrong side of the market.

Remanding $47,000.
FREMONT, Pa., Nov. 12.—The County Treasurer, Commissioners, and Comptroller, made formal demand on Clerk of Courts, Roward, Monday morning, for the $47,000 alleged to be due the County by him. He denies that any such sum is due; on the contrary, he claims that the County owes him $43,500 for which he presented an itemized bill. The matter was placed in the hands of the Solicitor with instructions to bring civil suit, and the Comptroller to bring criminal suit to recover the above sum from Roward.

An Enormous Skull.
WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 12.—Near Kingswood, Weston county, laborers working on a road unearthed a human skull which measured forty inches in circumference around the forehead. No other bones could be found in the vicinity. The skeleton to which the skull belonged is supposed to have been fourteen feet high.

Two Good Men Gone Wrong.
DAVENPORT, Iowa, Nov. 12.—McCook & Donahue, one of the oldest business houses in this city, have been arrested, charged with defrauding the city and county on extensive coal contracts, by selling short weight and poor quality. They claim the arrest is a blackmailing scheme.

Supposed To Be Lost.
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—The schooner Arab, went ashore last week and was being towed to Milwaukee. She is overdue and not yet heard from. It is feared she went down in Sunday's gale with the tug. Eighteen men were aboard the two vessels.

An Alarming Rumor.
PARIS, Nov. 12.—The report from Madrid that the French residents of Barcelona intended shooting the Crown Prince Frederick William on his visit to Spain, is discredited here.

Fatal Railroad Accident.
TRON, N. Y., Nov. 12.—John Schermerhorn was killed and several persons injured in a collision between two engines on the West Shore Railroad.

AYER'S PILLS.
A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession. These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest pills I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

FRANKLIN T. RICHMOND, Va., June 3, 1882. "I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA, they are invaluable." J. T. HAYES, JR., Mexico, Texas, June 17, 1882. The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of the most efficient of various kinds I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the constive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

Encouraged by the largely increased trade I have had during the last year, and being determined to further increase it the coming year, I have taken special pains in the selection of my stock for the fall and winter trade in order that I may be fully prepared to meet the wants of my customers in every particular. My goods are all first-class and of quality; purchased from first-hand sources, and I risk nothing in saying that I am prepared to successfully compete with any house in the city. I carry the largest and most complete stock of CANNED GOODS in the city, all strictly standard and guaranteed to give satisfaction. My house is headquarters for and all kinds of COUNTRY PRODUCE, and I shall want to buy during the fall and winter especially for my customers 5,000 pounds choice Butter, 10,000 dozen fresh Eggs, 5,000 dozen Chickens, 5,000 well-fatted Turkeys, besides all the Game, or all kinds, I can get. Will have a well-selected stock of specialties for the holiday trade. Agent for Fleischmann & Co.'s COMBINED YEAST. GOODS DELIVERED TO ALL PARTS OF THE CITY FREE OF CHARGE.

POULTRY and CAME.

FOR SALE. T. Lowry, BOURBON FARM.

For sale, privately, one of the best farms in Bourbon county, containing two hundred and fifty acres. Its improvements are second to none. But little of it has been plowed or laid out. Barn room enough for ten acres of tobacco; stone and brick walls close to first class colleges, churches, etc. It is one of the most desirable homes in the county. It must be seen to be appreciated. Come and see it; I want to sell; it is in three-quarters of a mile of Middle town postoffice. Write for particulars. R. W. OWEN.

Like an Evil Spirit.

In olden times it was thought that evil spirits came in through cracks and keyholes. The generally approved way to keep them out was to plug up the keyholes and stop the cracks with cotton. Notwithstanding these preventive measures, the evil things had their own way and often came in as they pleased.

So comes malaria now-a-days. We try to keep it out of the keyhole and it comes in by the crack. We stop up the crack, and lo! it comes from a leak in the plumbing, or an opening from some neglected drain, or from some unsuspected source and unguarded direction.

We cannot always keep malaria out, but we can give it battle and drive its effects from our systems. If known's Iron-Bitters is taken in time, malaria has not a ghost of a chance. This is the great family medicine. Your druggist sells it, and you ought to keep a bottle in the house.
